Betty Parsons, Director
Betty Parsons Gallery
15 East 57th Street
New York, New York

Dear Mrs. Parsons:

As I mentioned to you when I was in New York a short time ago, we will be picking up paintings on March 20th and 21st, for the Gevirtz-Mnuchin Fund Exhibition at the Kootz Gallery, which opens on March 25th.

I believe that the Ellsworth Kelly, "Blue-White, 1962" is still in his studio and is rolled. Mr. Charles W. Johnson of W.S. Budworth and Son will be in touch with you, and I would appreciate your working out a suitable pick up time with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Kelly.

Would you also please remind Mr. Kelly that the canvas will have to be stretched at the Kootz Gallery on Monday.

Many thanks for your attention to these matters.

Sincerely,

Thomas H. Garver
Assistant Director
